IMPORTANT INFORMATION: The difference between a tour guide and a tour manager is the following: The main task of a tour guide is to explain the sights and monuments you see during your ride, while the tour manager is responsible for administrative and technical details. During a romantic Fiaker carriage ride in Vienna, a tour manager will decorate the carriage according to your wishes and manage the tour from the extra seat next to the driver, taking care of potential extra service. If you book a tour guide with your romantic Fiaker carriage ride, he or she will also sit with the driver and explain you the sights of Vienna's city centre during the first hour. During the second hour, your guide will then act as a tour manager and take care of special routes, extra catering etc. Generally, the booking of a guide or tour manager is not necessary for a romantic Fiaker carriage tour.
